Safeguarding

Keeping you safe from abuse and neglect

This leaflet is for people with learning difficulties to help you understand about abuse and what you can do about it.

Abuse can be:

Domestic Abuse

Domestic abuse is when you are hurt,
bullied or frightened by your girlfriend, boyfriend, wife, husband or family member.

Financial and Material Abuse Financial and material abuse is when someone takes your money or things when you don't want them to. This could be at home, at work or in the street.

Physical Abuse
Physical abuse is when someone hurts your body.

Mate Crime
Mate Crime is when someone who says they are your friend is unkind and nasty to you or takes advantage of you.

Psychological and Emotional Abuse
Psychological and emotional abuse is when someone upsets or scares you.

Hate Crime
Hate crime is when someone targets you because they think you are different.

Sexual Abuse

Sexual abuse is when someone touches your body when you don't want them to.

Discriminatory abuse

Discriminatory abuse is when you are treated less fairly by someone because you are different to them.

Modern Slavery

Modern slavery is when someone forces you to work or do things for little or no money.

Self Neglect

Self neglect is when you don't look after yourself such as not keeping clean or not eating properly.

Organisational abuse

Organisational abuse is when people who are paid to care for you don't care for you properly or respect your rights.

Neglect or Acts of Omission

Neglect or acts of omission is when someone doesn't look after you in the right way. They may not give you food or medicine or help you to keep yourself clean.

Hoarding

Hoarding is when you keep lots and lots of things and it makes daily life hard for you.

Feeling Safe

Do you feel safe with these people...
